ARMSTRONG BILLING AND PAYMENT POLICIES

- 1) Your service is a "subscription" service. You are billed one (1) month in advance for this service.
- 2) PAYMENT-IN-FULL is due upon receipt of your monthly statement. Your payment should be mailed with the enclosed company portion of your statement to ensure the proper credit to your subscriber account. You must allow at least five (5) working days prior to the statement due date for your payment to be credited to your account.
- 3) Your account will be charged a fee for any check returned to us for non-sufficient funds (NSF) by your bank.
- 4) Should you have any questions regarding your statement, please contact Customer Service by phone after receipt of your statement. Within 60 days after any charges appear on your bill, those charges are assumed to be correct.
- 5) Your account is considered delinquent if FULL PAYMENT is not received by the due date listed on your monthly bill. If full payment is not received by this date, a late fee will be assessed and appear on your next statement.
- 6) You are notified that your account is "Past Due" by a message printed on your monthly statement. If FULL PAYMENT of that statement balance is not received following this notice, all services will be discontinued.
- 7) If you are disconnected for nonpayment, you will be scheduled for a reconnection of service only after payment of the entire balance due, a reconnect fee and charges for one (1) month's service in advance is collected.
- 8) It is your responsibility to return all related leased equipment to our office within five (5) business days after service termination. Failure to do so will result in a charge to your account that covers the replacement costs of the equipment.
- 9) We reserve the right to adjust the charges previously stated without prior notification.
- 10) A payment made greater than the Amount Due on your invoice will reflect as a credit balance on your account. This balance is subject to any future adjustments.

Our services are subject to Armstrong's terms and conditions, a current copy of which can be found at www.ArmstrongOneWire.com/policies, as updated from time to time by posting any amendments, modifications or supplements or replacements to this site. Questions relating to these terms and conditions may be directed to Customer Service. By paying Armstrong in accordance with the terms of this billing statement and/or continuing to use our services, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of service and use contained and referenced in the Armstrong Terms and Conditions of Service Use, as currently published at <http://www.ArmstrongOneWire.com/policies> (which may be revised or amended from time to time, the "General Terms and Conditions"). You are responsible for reviewing, understanding and complying with the General Terms and Conditions. By paying Armstrong in accordance with the terms of the billing statement and/or continuing to use the services we provide, you agree (i) you have reviewed and accepted each of the General Terms and Conditions. (ii) Armstrong is providing services to you subject to the General Terms and Conditions and (iii) to be bound by the General Terms and Conditions in their entirety with respect to your use of our services.
